Over the River and Through the Woods

D
Over the river and through the woods
G D
To Grandmother's house we go
G D
The horse knows the way to carry the sleigh
A7
Through white and drifted snow

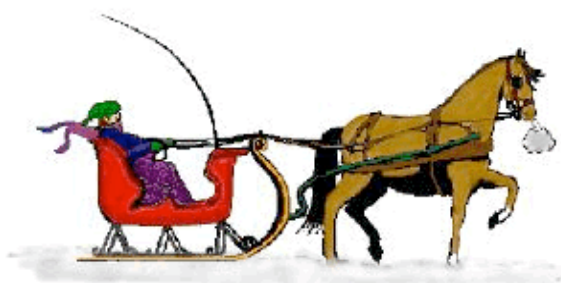

D
Over the river and through the woods
G D
Oh how the wind does blow
G D
It stings the toes and bites the nose
A7
As over the ground we go

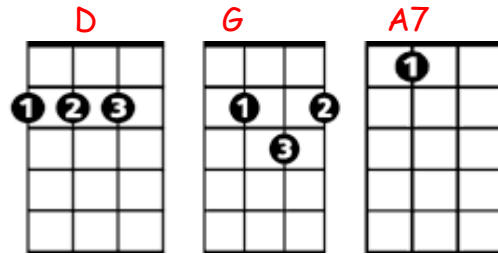

D
Over the river and through the woods
G D
Trot fast my dapple gray
G D
Spring o'er the ground just like a hound
A7
For this is Christmas Day

D
Over the river and through the woods
G D
And straight through the barn yard gate
G D
It seems that we go so dreadfully slow
A7
It is so hard to wait

D
Over the river and through the woods
G D
Now Grandma's cap I spy
G D
Hurrah for fun the pudding's done
A7
Hurrah for the pumpkin pie

D
Over the river and through the woods
G D
To Grandmother's house we go
G D
The horse knows the way to carry the sleigh
A7
Through white and drifted snow

"Auld lang syne" is a Scottish song used at the conclusion of any convivial evening, especially on New Year's Eve. "Auld lang syne" is literally "old long since," or "times gone by." The song we sing now is a version of an ancient song reworked by the 18th century Scottish bard Robbie Burns, a song he said "of olden times" which he took down from an old man's singing and then improved with the words we sing today.

DREYDL SONG

C
I have a little drey-dl,
G7
I made it out of clay.

And when it's dry and ready.
C
Then drey-dl I shall play.
-----

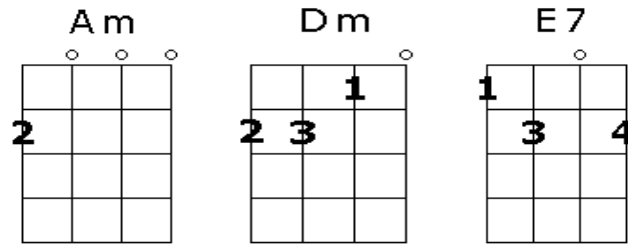

CHORUS:
C
Oh, drey-dl, drey-dl, drey-dl.
G7
I made it out of clay.

Oh, drey-dl, drey-dl, drey-dl.
C
Now drey-dl I shall play.
-----

C
It has a lovely body,
G7
With leg so short and thin,

And when it is all tired,
C
It drops and then I win.

CHORUS:
C
Oh, drey-dl, drey-dl, drey-dl.
G7
I made it out of clay.

Oh, drey-dl, drey-dl, drey-dl.
C
Now drey-dl I shall play.
-----

C
My drey-dl's always playful.
G7
It loves to dance and spin.

A happy game of drey-dl,
C
Come play, let's now begin.
-----

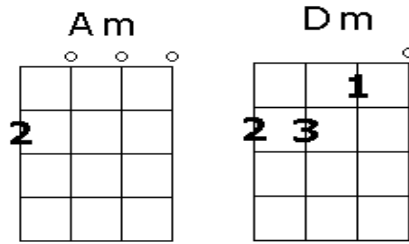

CHORUS:
C
Oh, drey-dl, drey-dl, drey-dl.

C
Now drey-dl I shall play.
